

Agenda for the fifth Tempus JEP 17028-02 project meeting

DATE: 11th November, 2005

PLACE: Universidad Politecnica de Madrid, Spain

- 11:00 – 11:10 Prof. Papananos and Prof. Octavio Nieto: Opening comments
- 11:10 – 12:00 Prof. Pavasovic and Prof. J. Popovic give a short presentation of results achieved and problems encountered at UB:
- Curriculum development
 - Review of the current situation
 - Second/third year
 - Curriculum modification
 - "Elements of Analog electronics"
 - "Elements of Digital electronics"
 - Third year - fall semester
 - Curriculum approved by the Faculty
 - Syllabi of the courses:
 - "Analog electronics"
 - "Digital electronics"
 - "Introduction to IC design"
 - Prepared course materials (tnt.etf.bg.ac.yu)
 - Third year - spring semester
 - Proposed curriculum
 - Proposed syllabi of the courses
 - "Power electronics"
 - "Linear electronics"
 - "Introduction to VLSI system design"
 - "Computer electronics"
 - Proposed future activities
 - Proposed curriculum for fourth, fifth, and postgraduate years
 - Laboratory
 - Review of the current situation
 - Publishing
 - Discussion on the achieved results
- 12:00 – 12:30 Prof. Litovski gives a short presentation of results achieved and problems encountered at UN.
- Discussion on the achieved results
- 12:30 – 13:00 Prof. Katic gives a short presentation of results achieved and problems encountered at UNS.
- Discussion on the achieved results
- 13:00 – 13:15 Mobility report

- Prof. J. Popovic gives a review of UB professors and students mobility
- Prof. Litovski gives a review of UN professor mobility

13:15 – 13:30 Tempus project monitoring

- Prof. A. Pavasovic gives a short report of the Tempus delegation visit to UB and monitoring this project

13:30 – 15:00 Break

15:00 – 18:00 Planning of future activities

- Analysis of the project budget
- Equipment
 - When and how to continue with buying the equipment
- Travel: when, who and for how long
 - Professors
 - Students
- Publishing new textbooks
 - plan for each local university
- Dissemination
 - planning of workshops in Serbia
- Planning of next meeting: when and where